

Timely Incentives

Driving Provider Motivation & Engagement

The Challenge

Payment delays impede value-based success.

Incentives play a critical role in aligning financial rewards with value-based care goals, but payment delays can disrupt the connection between performance and rewards, undermining provider motivation and program success.

The Solution

Transparent performance. Prompt payments. Motivated providers.

SpectraMedix provides transparency into provider performance and facilitates timely payments, linking outcomes to financial rewards to keep providers engaged and motivated to maintain high standards of care. These actionable insights empower payers and providers to make informed decisions, enabling strategic adjustments to improve both health and financial results.

Timely Performance Insights: Track provider performance with detailed, up-to-date incentives earned to enhance care strategies, support decision-making, and identify missed opportunities.

Incentive Calculation: Deliver timely and comprehensive updates on provider earnings to highlight the financial impact of care decisions, boosting accountability and driving performance.

Flexible Payment Models: Provide expected shared savings up front or in installments to reinforce positive behavior, foster quality improvement, and support microincentive, partial payment, and prepayment programs.

Income Transparency: Offer financial visibility for proactive planning so providers can confidently invest in resources, programs, and technology to enhance patient care and operational efficiency.
